PEER'S WEATHER STRIP LOCK

THE subscribers beg leave to inform builders and chers, that they have purchased at a high price the right for Kentucky of "SPER'S WEATHER STRIP LOOK," an article which has only to be seen to commend itself to architects and builders. It is very simple in its operation, cannot get out of order, is a perfect weather and dust guard, is secure against the operations of burglars, prevents all noise by the wind and siamming, and is cheaper and better for French windows than any article yet invented.

We now offer the right for every county in Kentucky, except Jefferson, which we reserve for ourselves, for sale on such liberal terms as must make it a profitable investment.

Speer's Weather Strip Lock may be seen in speration at the hardware store of John Hart, Market street, between Eighth and Ninth, and at the carpenter shop, of Schon & Tobin, on Fourth street, beyond Chestnut, of whom all desired information can be obtained. SCHON & TOBIN. JOHN HART.

DR. STRAUS, SURGEON DENTIST. WOULD inform the citizens of Louisville and its vicinity, that he has located himself here permanently, for the purpose of practicing his profession in all its various branches, after the latest and most approved style. Having practiced for the last twenty years in New Orleans, I feel confident of giving satisfaction to every one who may honor me with a call. I would call the particular attention of the public to my mode of filling teeth, which is done in such a manner as to get twice the amount of gold into a cavity, as done in the usual way. I can, therefore, "guarantee" every tooth plugged in such manner to be as good as if never decayed.

Artificial teeth inserted—from one to an entire set—not only for beauty, but also for use, with or without suction, such as the case may require. Teeth extracted

The Kentucky University at Harrodsburg. We have repeatedly made reference to the satis factory progress of the work of endowment of this astitution, which is being prosecuted with remarkable zeal and energy by John B. Bowman .-It gratifies us to learn that the present prospects of the university are as flattering as they could be desired. The funds now amount to $175,000, of which $50,000 have been paid in during the past eighteen months. Building, endowments, librairies, and everything requisite for complete educational training, will be in perfect readiness next fall. A faculty of the professors has already been selected. These teachers are gentlemen of ability and experience, and were chosen for their high character and enlarged experience as edu. cators. An agricultural school will be one of the main features of the university. This department with its several chairs filled with competent instruc tors, is demanded by the spirit and wants of the age, and we are glad to record that, here in Kencucky, a system of thoroughly educating farmers is about being inaugurated. We may mention, in this connection, that a series of able and interesting articles, upon this subject, from the pen of Dr. Robert Richardson, of Bethany College, are being published. Dr. R. is the professor elect of the Natural Sciences in Kentucky University. The devotion of Mr. Bowman to this noble en

Persons refurnishing and refitting their honses should give Mr. Murton a call.

INDICATIONS OF PROSPERITY .- We are gratified o learn from Mr. Deering, who is energetically ngaged in preparing his review of the trade and anufactures of Louisville, that the indications four city's prosperity are most flattering. He as recently been visiting the various work-shops, nd finds them all full of hands and as busy as essible. All of our manufacturers are thriving their business is constantly increasing, and there is a better and more hopeful spirit prevailing among all classes of workmen than for years be-

On that occasion Prof. Colliere, of this city, will give a grand concert, assisted by his daughter M'lle Bertha Schiedler, Mr. Dolfinger, and Messrs. A. and E. Zoller. This is an unusual fine array of musical talent. Prof. Colliere posseses a wonderully rich, varied, and powerful voice, and his assistants are all finely gifted. The programme for ance. this concert embraces some of the very choicest gems to be found in the repertoires of most emient musical composers. Herman Glazier came on board the steamer Rocket, at Stephensport, and paid his passage to Madison, where he said his mother resided. He had been down the river on a flat boat, but was compelled to return in consequence of ill health. While the boat was at Portland, Glazier was seized with a fit, or spasm. The officers of the boat immediately had him placed in his room and cared for. Yesterday morning he was seen to fall or jump overboard at the mouth of the canal, and

THE APPLE BUTTER MEN IN TOWN .- Our readers, will remember John Hunt and his famous apple butter, which was sought after with avidity by the whole city. His successors, Messrs. Conghlin and Graham, have established themselves in Wall street, and also have a stall in the market. They manufacture the most superior apple butter and mince meat, and have an article of domestic sweet cider, which cannot be equalled. Buyers will recollect that Messrs S. G. Henry & Co., sell this morning (Thursday) at 10 o'clock, on four months' credit, at the warehouse of Mr. Ebenezer Bustard, some 250 hhds. N. O. sugar, ranging from fair to strictly prime. HORRIBLE RAILROAD ACDIDENT .- On last Monday night the train from this city ran over a man named Wm. H. Robinson alias Morrison, who was lying across the track about two miles from Frankfort, cutting off one of his legs and mashing his head in a most shocking manner. When picked up he was without a spark of life, his skull being mashed into an indistinguishable mass, nothing of it to be seen but his hair, which was covered with his blood. The Commonwealth says that the deceased was discharged from the enitentiary on last Saturday, having served out a term of one year on a conviction for felony comnitted in Jefferson county. He was a native of Virginia, and before being incarcerated in the Kentucky State Prison had served his native has done more for our cause than Mr. T. THE JEFFERSONVILLE PENITENTIARY.—There are ow four hundred and forty convicts in the State prison at Jeffersonville, eight of whom are females. There are but three hundred and forty-four cells and no room for more. The fall courts will probably increase the population of this conservative institution to about five hundred. The prison is now overcrowded, without proper accommodations for near a hundred of the convicts who have to sleep in the halls, or in the cells two in a bed. It is proposed to build another penitentiary somewhere in the limestone region of the Wabash, employing convicts to do the work.

MR. MURDOCH.-We learn that the excellent entleman and distinguished actor, Mr. Jas. Unselfishly and gratuitously abors of his profession, is putting in his time with he has devoted his life, energies, and property to a party of friends on Cumberland Mountain, paripating in the antusements and pleasures o termined that it shall be the pride and glory of camp-life and the chase. Mr. M. is a good hunter as well as a good actor, and rarely, if ever, misses is mark in either capacity. It is said that since his sojourn in the mountains he has "brought down" quite a number of fine deer, showing that he can "bring down" game with the same certainty and facility that he "brings down" houses.

Maj. Cullen, of Indiana, now an Indian agent in the Northwest, received not long since $90,000 in specie, at St. Louis, with which to pay annuities. He placed it on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad, together with two guards. On arriving at the junction of the Illinois central road the agent of the American express demanded that the specie should be subject to express charges, amounting to $135. The Major resisted, and the boxes and guards arrived at Dunleith.—Here a posse was collected, consisting of freight agents, express agents and their employees, and the specie was held on the cars for the payment of the $135. Finally the Major ordered his guards (who were yet in the car with the boxes) to throw them out of the window on to the platform; he then drew a revolver, and summoning the guards he marched off his treasure to the "Grey Eagle," on which boat he made his way to St. Paul.—New Albany Ledger.

have no organ, we have to appeal to the Democrat or Courier as a medium through which to express our views on political matters. Agreeing fully with and indorsing your noble, manly course on the Kansas question, I have chosen your columns to say a few words on the Gubernatorial canvass, and to present to the Democracy of the State the claims of that sterling Democrat, A. Gallatin Talbott, for the nomination for Governor. I do not say too much when I say that no man in the State lied himself with our fortunes early in '55, when our prospects were dark, gloomy, and anything but inviting or cheering. He announced himself a candidate for Congress in the face of an over-whelming majority, and in opposition to Maj. Fox, one of the most talented and by far the most popular members of the American party in the district. The field was bravely contested, every inch of ground was disputed with an unyielding, arch of ground was disputed with an unyielding uncompromising tenacity. The order was monarch of almost the entire district. Their candidate had been long and favorably known to the people of the district, while our party was weak, dispirited, and in chaotic confusion, and Col. T. scarcely known out of his county; but he stopped not to count the odds; he went among the people, discussed his principles, and the eagle of victory perched on his banner—winning the reach had discussed his principles, and the eagle of victory perched on his banner—winning the race by 16 votes. He won the place. It was by his energy, and it alone, that the Fourth District fell into the Democratic fold. No other man could have won the race. But for him we would have been in a balaless minority.

he race. But for him we would have been in a selpless minority.

Again, in 1857, the opposition put upon the rack Mr. C. Anderson, or Boyle, a young man of ine promise, extensive influential family consection, and backed by a strong moneyed power. Every effort was made to defeat Col. T. The opposition justly looked upon him as a stambling osition justly looked upon him as a stumbling ock in their way. But all was too weak—the plock in their way. But all was too weak—the gallant Talbott was again successful by 164 maority, getting the largest vote ever given to a Democrat in the district. The point we make in is favor is, that the party has never given him mything, but he has brought success to the pary. If he had not run the race in 1855, this disrict would have been forever gane from the Demo rict would have been forever gone from the Dem-erats. We would never have regained our trength. If he should obtain the nomination, e will make a brilliant canvass, and achieve a iumphant victory. A. J. James, formerly of this county but now of ranklin, is spoken of for Attorney General. He ranklin, is spoken of for Attorney General. He ranklin, is spoken of for Attorney General. He an able lawyer, afine speaker, and a clever gendeman. The mountains will give him an unanimous support. In the canvass his power upon the stump will tell, and we to the Know Nothing who shall be presumptuous enough to oppose him.

Dismisses.—The mandamus sued out by Ruckstuhl, in reference to the city interpreter's place, now occupied by Mr. Shad, who was elected by the city council, and which position was taken from the petitioner, was denied. The petition of the plaintiff vs. Jno. D. Pope, to have enforced the payment of one months' salary, which plaintiff alleges is due him, he having been wrongfully ejected from said office, was dismissed, Judge Murr deciding that the circuit court was not the place to coerce debts due from the city of Louisville to its employees. This matter grows out the fact that Ruckstuhl denies the right to supercede him as city interpreter during good behavior.

Reading Matter on every page. The Journal on Bishop Spalding and Common

The Journal having assailed Bishop Spalding on the subject of public schools, we cheerfully opened our columns to him for his defence. We naturally thought that the public would be interested in seeing and examining both sides of a question so very important as that of public education. The Journal now rejoins to the Bishep's reply, and, as public journalists, we propose to examine the merits of the rejoinder, in order that our readers may be in possession of all the facts, and may be thus better able to judge for themselves. We do not intend to commit ourselves to all the positions taken by the Bishop, but we design for the present only to review the controversy, and to state our opinion as to the fairness and conclusiveness of the Journal's re-

The Journal does not propose "to go over all the ground in detail, occupied by the Bishop's reply;" for it adds, "to many points in this reply we could give no more direct or fitting answer than by simply quoting what we have already written in our review of the pamphlet." This would seem to indicate aldisposition to abandon the discussion, at least so far as Its details, its facts and arguments are concerned. In his reply to the Journal's attack, the Bishop had alleged many new facts and arguments, and he had plausibly, if not conclusively, answered the entire reasoning of the Journal, Still the Journal thinks it would be "tedious" and unnecessary to go over the whole ground again, as its editors could not hope to give a more direct or fitting reply than they have already given.

This might, perhaps, be well enough, or at least least the main points at issue. But from what has been published in the first two articles, such does not appear to be the intention. The editors evidently intend to keep up a light and annoying skirmishing on the Bishop's flanks, not boldly to attack his center; to ignore his principal facts and arguments, and to endeavor to stir up popular prejudice against him, and thereby to diminish the force of his reasoning. This is not fair, however it may comport with the tactics of the Journal in other matters.

The Journal sets out by making a false issue. It says that the question is between the American and the Austrian systems of public education. his cause, why could be not afford to be fair in protector of property stowed in cellars. his statements? Whatever opinion the public may entertain on the merits of the controversy, one thing is certain, that all impartial men will consider such unfairness as a palpable evidence

The Bishop ous instruction, and their practice-at least some times and in some places-be directly the opposite | went away together. of the theory, then surely it was competent for the Bishop to argue against both, either disjunct ively or conjunctively. At least he was guilty of no inconsistency in so doing. If there was any inconsistency, it was manifestly not in the reasoning, but in the discrepancy between the theory and the practice of the schools. If he wrongly apprehended and incorrectly stated either the ory or the practice, the Journal should have cted his error; but the attempt to brand him with inconsistency, without denying his facts, after he had already clearly and fully explained his position, looks to us very much like special pleading, and a want of confidence in the soundness of the argument. If the theory of our public schools be not what the Bishop stated it to be, let the Journal clearly and distinctly define what that theory is. If the facts and practice be not such as the Bishop alleged, let the Journal refute the

Let the editors particularly explain away or refute the facts alleged by the Bishop in regard to the public schools of Louisville as they have been conducted during the last few years. This would be plain sailing, and the public will not be satisfied with anything less than this. Nothing will content intelligent and impartial men but plain facts, and solid arguments based upon facts .-Whatever we may think of the Bishop's position in this matter of common schools, he is entitled both as a man and a citizen to fair treatment .-Paltry special pleading, and sneering at him "as the sworn official of a foriegn government," will not answer his arguments. When a writer resorts to personal abuse, it is a sure sign that his stock of argument is well nigh exhausted. When he rests his cause on an appeal to passion and prejudice, it is a clear indication that he places little reliance on the justice of his cause.

We publish this mouning a letter from Hon. Frank P. Blair, as it appeared in the St. Louis News, concerning the charges of Isaac H. Stargeon, Esq., against Hon. Stephen A. Douglas. There is certainly some mystery about this matter which needs clearing up. The letter of Mr. Sturgeon, which we published some days ago, places the Little Giant in rather unenviable light for a true Democrat. If Douglas can be extricated, let it be done at once. Let all speak who know anything about the matter, so that justice may be done without so many insinuations, innuendos, inferences, and sppressed "woulds-if-Icould," that do more harm than plain out-speak ings. Let the truth, the whole truth, and noth ing but the truth come out, and things will look

The Appellate Reporter

The Journal of yesterday copied and endorsed n article from the Frankfort Commonwealth, complaining bitterly and denunciatorily of the removal of Judge Monroe from the reporter's chair of the Court of Appeals. The principal reason assigned why Judge Monroe should not have been removed, is that he has occupied that post for eighteen years. HORRIBLE MURDER IN NEW YORK.

OTHERS WOUNDED. SUICIDE OF THE MURDERER.

New York, Oct. 27.—A horrid massacre took place last night in West Thirtieth street, in this city. Two persons were murdered and five wounded, it is supposed mortally. The victims are the family of Francis Goulding, Esq., lumber merchant, consisting of himself, his wife, two sons, two daughters, and a servant girl. The sons, aged respectively nine and twelve years, are already dead, and the wife is dying. The others cannot live. The murderer, who is the eldest son of Mr. Goulding, has committed suicide. The motive of the murderer is supposed to be revenge, he having been detected some weeks ago in the act of robbing his father to a large amount. SECOND DISPATCH.

The following is an account of the horrible massacre last night: Young Goulding returned home about 11 o'clock, laboring under delirium tremens; proceeding to the celler, he got an axe; he then went to his father's chamber and attacked him, beating in his skull by severai blows from the ax. The father cannot live. Mrs. Goulding, hearing the cries of her husband, rushed from an outer room to his assistance, but was in turn attacked by the infuriated son and very badly wounded. His two brothers, one three years and the other fourteen, were next attacked, receiving several blows from the ax. The eldest will not live. His married sister, with a baby in her arn.s, was the next victim, but she managed to escape without being seriously injured. Two servant girls, who had rushed into the hall, were next attacked, and so horribly butchered that it is feared neither will live. Both have been sent next attacked, and so horribly butchered that it is feared neither will live. Both have been sent to the hospital. The assassin finally went to his own chamber, where, after locking himself in, he blew out his brains with a pistol. The Goulding family have held a highly respectable position in the community. Mr. G., as an officer of the Thirteenth street Methodist Church, is well known.

Feigned Murder.

Feigned Murder.

PENN YAN, N. Y., Sept. 24, 1858.

Our village was thrown into a state of no little excitement, this morning, by a report that Napoleon B. Van Tuyl, the kidnapper, had been murdered. The report originated from Van Tuyl's sudden disappearance, and the finding of his hat (with his name on it) on the bank of the canal, covered with blood, and had the appearance of having received a blow from a club or some other heavy instrument. His coat was also picked up in the road, a few rods off, and blood was found on the inside of the skirt, with holes having the appearance of stabs from a knife, on each side of the breast, and one through the collar, a little the breast, and one through the collar, a little above the shoulder. The water was drawn off from the upper level of the canal, and the canal earched, but no traces of the body were disc ered. The impression generally prevails that he has not been murdered, but that he has resorted o a ruse, in order to mislead the public and make

Van Tuyl has been in this village, residing with his parents, for about two months, having been released from the Ontario county jail, on bail to the amount of $1,500, his father and uncle being his bondsmen. There is no doubt but the latter supposition is correct, as there are circumstances in the matter that tend to confirm it. A person answering his description was seen standperson answering his description was seen standing on the canal bridge at a late hour last night, with a glazed cap on his head, and something concealed under a light overcoat, which is supposed to be the hat found as above. He had purchased a glazed cap a few days before, unknown to his parents, and probably with this thing in view. A search among his wearing apparel shows the disappearance of the cap and a few articles of winter clothing. The supposition now is, that he has been helped off by some of his friends who are interested; that he is on his way to some other country, and this course has been taken in order to release his bail on the plea that he has been murdered, I will let you know of it.

Yours, etc.,

NUNNS & CLARK'S Improved New Scale Planos are so well and favorably known in this market, and throughout the whole country, to be Superior in touch, tone, and durability, and they speak so well for themselves, that they need no word of commendation from any one.

HAINES BROTHERS' PIANOS are new Pianos in this market, but they are well known in many sections of the country as an A No. 1 instrument. Competent judges who have tried them pronounce them fully equal, if not superior, to the Steinway & Son's Pianos. They are a beautiful, highly finished instrument, and we can sell them at three-fourths the price of a Chickering Piano, as we do not have to pay anything for their name or reputation. We still keep a full supply of the New and Improved Scale of Chickering & Son's Grand, Parlor Grand, and Square Pianos, and as we are Cash Dealers in them, we can sell them unusually low for cash. We have also several other makes of Pianos, all of which we warrant to give perfect satisfaction. We respectfully invite strangers visiting the city during the Fair, and all others in want of Pianos, to call and examine our complete stock, for we are selling exceedingly low for cash. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment,

The best Liniment in the world for man or beast.

Another remarkable cure performed by McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment. Read for yourselves:

Thomas Ford, a blacksmith, living near Cassavenue, on Tenth street, had a horrible running sore on his foot. He tried various Liniments, Salves, &c., but could do it no good. He despaired of ever being able to work at his trade again, because he could not bear any weight on his foot; and by one small bottle of McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment, he is now perfectly cured.

Rheumatism, paralysis, neuralgia, bruises, sprains, stiffness in the joints or muscles, swellings, sore throat, earache or toothache, wounds, fresh cuts, sores, burns, scalds, pains, &c., yield to the 'magle' influence of this wonderful Liniment.

THE E. H. FAIRCHILD.—This splendid, fast running boat, one of the new Lightning Line packets, starts to New Orleans on her first trip of the season on Wednesday next, from Cairo. She is in tip top order, in charge of her former experienced and popular officers, Capt. Faucett in command, with J. F. Leyden in the clerk's office.

Passengers by the Minnesota or Diamond, co-morrow, will reach Cairo in time to secure morrow, will reach oms on the Fairchild. The Little Ella, in full repair, was brought

We learn that Mr. Wm. Garmer, of New Albany, formerly clerk of the Pelican, died fever at New Orleans, on Monday last. FOR CARROLLTON.—The Emma Dean, and gay Umpire, are the rival packets for Madison and Carrollton, at 1 o'clock to-day. They got in last

The rain will certainly cause the lower river to rise, as all the tributaries will be swolen, and we auticipate a much better stage of water than we have had for some time. It may not rise sufficiently to camble the larger packets to resume their trips, but we hope it will, as the season is now pretty well advanced.

The Memphis packets McLellan, Southerner, and Alvin Adams, are in tiptop order, and probably the McLellan will start to Memphis on Monday, under the suspices of Capt. T. M. Erwin.— She is at Portland, and looks like a new boat just from the builder's hands.

Memphis is full of cotton, which is freely offered for shipment to New Orleans, at $1 75 per bale. The Cora Anderson has a load engaged at $1 50 per bale. The Memphis and New Orleans packets go well loaded with other freight. Captain J. P. Schenck, of the Switzerland, started three flatboats, laden with 2500 bales of any, for New Orleans Tuesday, from Vevay, Ind.

We learn that the Economy, from Cincinnati, while at Cuira, reshipped her freight for points below Memphis, (fifty tons, valued at $3,000,) on the Newcomb—the bulk of which is insured in Cincinnati.

We copy the following in reference to Cincinnati and Nashville boats, from the Gazette: The Nashville line of boats are making ready to commerce their trips to the Cumberland. There will be a regular railroad packet line, one of the line leaving every Wednesday. It is indicated that the following steamers will compose the line: Fairy Queen, Capt. Kyle, Elia, Capt Milt Aiken, and "76," Barclay. There will also be an opposition line of steamers, comprising will also be an opposition line of steamers, comprising the Quaker City, Capt.
